La Suite Girafe

LA SUITE GIRAFE, BEST KEPT SECRET

Located on the 9th floor of the Cité de l'Architecture et du Patrimoine, La Suite Girafe or "LSG" to its friends, is the former flat of the curator who had a private terrace with a panoramic view of the whole of Paris in the 1930's. Designed by Joseph Dirand, the restaurant (100 guests) is close to the sky and offers a privileged moment with the Iron Lady as a view, every day at lunch and dinner. In terms of cuisine, LSG offers contemporary marine cuisine with seafood, raw and cooked fish in all their forms. For desserts, the inevitable chouquettes to share, the red fruit pavlova or the crunchy chocolate praline tart. An exceptional setting and a sweet and greedy menu that will satisfy all desires.

Matsuhisa

MATSUHISA, ASIA AND LATIN AMERICA

The iconic Japanese chef Nobu Matsuhisa has chosen Le Royal Monceau-Raffles Paris to open its first restaurant in France. Enjoy an unforgettable gourmet experience, a contemporary vision of Japanese cuisine with Peruvian notes, and an elegant moment in the famous 5* hotel decorated by Philippe Starck. A subdued atmosphere for a dinner with original flavours that will seduce the most demanding palates in search of discoveries. And weather permitting, you can book a table on the terrace, a leafy haven at the heart of the hotel. Lastly, special mention for the service : impeccable.
